Teaching Experience

UNIVERSITY OF TORONTO | BA/MA LEVEL | F 2023

“Words and Worship in Christian Cultures”: In this course, instructed by Simon Coleman, I taught a session on the “The power of words: Pentecostal performative use of language”.

GOETHE UNIVERSITY | BA/MA LEVEL | S 2021

“African Indigenous Religious Traditions: Yoruba Religion”: The course introduced African Indigenous Religious Traditions with a focus on Yoruba Religion. Next to studying the complex net of religious practices within the system of Yoruba Religion, the course aimed to discuss Yoruba Religion in relation to current art perspectives.

GOETHE UNIVERSITY | BA/MA LEVEL | W 2020/21

“Glocal Pentecostalism”: The course introduced global Pentecostal movements, their historical genesis, and characteristics with a focus on African Pentecostal Movements. Empirical investigations were conducted in local Pentecostal communities that came with the introduction of qualitative research methods.

GOETHE UNIVERSITY | BA/MA LEVEL | S 2020

“Qualitative Research Methods in the context of Digital Religion”: The course introduced qualitative research methods with a focus on Participant Observation and Narrative Interview. An exploration in the context of digital religion gave students the opportunity to practice their method skills.
